

PRESS RELEASE

This to communicate the successful closing of the test phase of HOUND FOREX, an automatic management system applied to the Forex market created in 2010 by the Sintesi Group.

The HOUND FOREX system, founded on an algorithm that is based on The Chaos Theory, is a direct application of the same theory on the asset management activity on the financial markets.

The HOUND FOREX system from the 1th April 2013 is available on the market (institutional).
